Woo Hoo! COSTUMES ARE HERE!!
We will be distributing costumes throughout March 5 – March 10 during normal class times ☺ Yay! We ask the parents' to please be present during this time to ensure you receive accurate info regarding any specifics needed such as alterations, accessories, etc.

Please advise: costumes will not be distributed to a dancer if there is a balance due. Please submit payment to BAATJ immediately.

March GREEN To Do:

We want you to build a vegetable garden! Indoor or Outside! Take pictures and email them to Balletandallthatjazz@hotmail.com And we'll submit your photos on our website and Facebook page! GOOD LUCK!!

You dancer(s) can be featured on the cover of 2013 Program Magazine!

Enter our Program Magazine Contest simply by submitting local and personal ads/messages dedicated to your dancer.

Several prizes are included for meeting specific quotas!

And do not miss your chance for your family to win a getaway weekend from the house!!

“Enjoy the process of learning to dance. The process of our profession, and not its final achievement, is the heart and soul of dance.”

- Jacques d'Amboise

BAATJ ANNUAL PHOTOSHOOT MARCH 26 – 31, 2012

The dancers will be getting their pictures taken with their costumes provided by Denis J. Nally Photography. Pictures will be taken during your dancer's normal class time. Please arrive ON TIME in costume, for we have limited changing area within our school. The photo-shoot is a one-time event that offers the opportunity for your dancer to be featured in our annual program magazine. Please verbally speak with the class instructor, if the dancer cannot attend. Please keep in mind that any use of cameras is prohibited in the school during this day.

All of the dancer's images will be available on www.denisjnallyphotography.com accessible by an event code given two weeks after the photo-shoot. If you would like to bring along the picture order form, please download the form from our website or pick one up at the school.

BAATJ Website is up and running!!

BAATJ Company members would like to say thank you to all of the guests who participated in our Annual Family Fun Day Bowling Fundraiser!!

We genuinely appreciate your support!
